

CONFIDENTIAL

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE
SECURITY COMMITTEE
COMPARTMENTATION SUBCOMMITTEE

ILLEGIB

25X1

MINUTES

FORTY SECOND MEETING

13 APR 1984

Friday, 13 April 1984, 1000 Hours
Room 4B867, Pentagon, Washington, DC

25X1

Chairman
Presiding

MEMBERS/ALTERNATES PRESENT

ITEM 1: Introductions

25X1

introduced the four observers listed above, who are the experts on terrorism and invited them to provide their input on the subject. 25X1

ITEM 2: Approval of Minutes

25X1

asked if there were objections to the minutes from the 28 February 1984 meeting. He also noted that the final Compartmentation Subcommittee suggested wording on advertising practices of contractors/consultants was presented to at the 11 April 1984 SECOM meeting. A subsequent vote by SECOM members unanimously accepted the subcommittee's recommendation for inclusion in DCID, Security Policy Manual for SCI Control Systems. 25X1

CONFIDENTIAL

A copy will be attached to the last minutes. Therefore the minutes will not be amended. The chairman announced the minutes are approved as written.

☐ ITEM 3: Security Guidance Against Terrorism for SCI Indoctrinated Personnel

25X1

1. ☐ The chairman asked the subcommittee members if anyone had any inputs or thoughts on a security policy or guidance to be issued to the Intelligence Community on the current terrorist threat. This tasking was per ☐ memo, 28 March 1984.

25X1

25X1

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL

Page Denied

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1

25X1

25X1

[] informed the members of the 25 April, 30 May and 18 July briefings on the SECOM by [] He encouraged all the committee members to attend one of the three briefings. Requests for attendance could be sent through [] or directly to the DCI SECOM office.

[] ITEM 5: Next Meeting

[] The chairman advised the next meeting of the Compartmentation Subcommittee will be announced at a later date.

[]
Executive Secretary

APPROVED:

[]
Chairman ✓

cc: Subcommittee Members
DCI SECOM Staff

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL